ABOUT DUBLIN

Dublin is a suburban city in the East (San Francisco) Bay Area and Tri-Valley regions of Alameda County, California. The city, with a population of approximately 64,500, is located along the north side of the Interstate 580/680 intersection.

HIGHLIGHTS

The Dublin Unified School District (DUSD) serves over 12,300 students, from preschool through adult education, in a diverse suburban environment. The district is comprised of seven elementary schools, two middle schools, one K-8 school, one continuation high school, and one comprehensive high school. The Dublin Unified School District mission is to educate every student to become a lifelong learner by providing a safe and supportive environment that fosters collective responsibility for each student's success.

The Dublin Unified School District was recently labeled one of the "Top 100 Best School Districts in California," ranking 27 out of over 750 state school districts, and fourth in Alameda county.¹

Dublin schools have been recognized with numerous accolades, including Advanced Placement Honor Roll, National Blue Ribbon School, Gold Ribbon Award, Project Lead The Way Distinguished School, California School of Character, National School of Character, Educational Results Partnership Honor Roll, California Distinguished School, and Title 1 Academic Achievement Award School.

Dublin High School is renowned for its signature programs, including the Engineering Academy, which prepares students to succeed in a post-secondary engineering program; the Biomedical Academy, which prepares students for a post-secondary education in biomedical sciences; and the Culinary Academy which prepares students for a post-secondary education in the culinary arts.
