

Challenge #1

Create an original book for others to read and enjoy!

Author's Fair Participation Guidelines

- You are a student in grades 4-8.
- Project designed with GATE students in mind.
- Your book is an original creation showcasing your talent and creativity.
- Your book can be fiction or nonfiction.
- Your book should be no longer than 20 pages.
- Your book can include illustrations (no clipart).
- Your book can be handwritten or typed.
- Your book dimensions are no larger than 8"x12".
- Each book must include a cover with a title, your name, grade, school and teacher.
- Words and pictures should be school appropriate and may not include any violence or weapons of any kind.
- Any book deemed inappropriate will not be shown.

Completed books are due to your school office Author's Fair Box no later than 9am on January 10th.

- No late books will be accepted for any reason.
- Books that do not meet guidelines will not be displayed.
- Authors can collect their books on the evening of the display or at their school the week following the event.

All books will be displayed at the DUSD District Office (Conf. Room C) from 6:30-7:30pm on January 16th.