

Searching WebPath Express directly

If you see WebPath Express on the side menu, you can use it to search WebPath Express directly.

The monthly theme offers you some interesting subjects.

To see some others, scroll through the months.

Just click Find It to explore one of them.

On the Search tab, enter your search term and click

Search. If you misspell a word or WebPath Express can't find anything, it offers suggestions for other search terms.

The Spotlight focuses on a special topic.

On the Browse tab, you can click the links to browse through the subjects.

On the Visual Search tab, you can click the pictures to browse through the subjects.

WebPath Express in Library Search

To find web sites on a particular topic, you can use any of the Library Search options.

For example, from Basic Search, enter your search term and click the appropriate button:

 Series looks in series titles.

 Subject looks in subjects.

 Author looks in authors and illustrators.

Keyword looks in titles, authors, subjects, series, and notes.

Title looks only in title information.

Viewing website summaries

Both Library Search and WebPath Express search results list the websites on their own tab.

For every site on the list, WebPath Express provides a summary, a topic, and a link to the website.

Click the title or the URL to go to the website described. The website appears in a new window. For a printer-friendly page, click

You can add WebPath Express sites to a Resource List.

Add Page adds all the titles on the page.

Add to this List adds a single title.

To view the List, open Resource Lists from the side menu.

Each site shows the grade levels for which it is appropriate:

- Kindergarten to 5th grade
- Middle School
- High School

Browsing for web sites

WebPath Express sites on the Browse tab of Library Search are listed based on their title, author, or subject.

To view the WebPath Express sites for the listing, click .

Finding web sites from Title Details

You may also notice WebPath Express links on a Title Details page of titles in your collection. Under Explore! you can find links to websites as well as links to other relevant materials.

To view the WebPath Express sites that match the listing, click .